

Town-Gown Advisory Council
University of South Carolina Lancaster
Founded 15 September 2018

The mission of the University of South Carolina Lancaster Town-Gown Advisory Council is to consciously build deeper relationships between the university and the communities we serve, with specific emphasis on these core values:

- Fostering the growth of students in their educational pursuits and in their engagement in the community as citizens, including creating opportunities for students as interns and in post-collegiate professional development;
- Developing relationships between university faculty and staff with the community for creating and sustaining fruitful teaching, scholarship, and service opportunities;
- Intentionally planning for campus priorities, programs, and growth that first serve students, but also benefit the community;
- Participating in the cultural and economic growth of campus and community by bringing together diverse and inclusive education, arts, and business interests.
